From the Vicar

August 2018

My dear Friends

We owe a big debt of gratitude to the many members and friends of All Saints' who helped in making the arrangements for this year's Annual Gift Day Appeal, which has raised £24,000 so far. Grateful thanks to all those who have already supported the appeal. If you have not sent a donation for this appeal, please consider doing so – donations should be sent to Hugh Scrutton, the honorary treasurer of All Saints' at 2a Bickerton Road, Headington, Oxford OX3 7LS. He tells me that we really must make every effort to achieve our target of £38,000.

This year's Summer Festival at All Saints' has proved to be one of the best of all our festivals. In spite of the 2018 heat wave and the attraction of the World Cup, the events of the festival have been well attended. I feel sure that the August recitals and the lecture by John Webster will maintain the high standard of the July events – I hope to see you on some of the Wednesday evenings in August.

The Bishop of Oxford will be making a pilgrimage on foot when he will be visiting all the parishes in the Area Deanery of Cowley on Monday 3rd September. His plans indicate that he will be at All Saints' between 14.05 and 14.35. I hope that it will be possible for some members of All Saints' to meet the Bishop on his pilgrimage.

We give our love and deep sympathy to our friend Brigid Crofton on the unexpected death of Julian, one of her sons, and to John and Carol Glasson on the death of John's mother. They have been in our prayers during the last few weeks.

With every Blessing,

Your friend and Vicar,

James Locke.

A New Venture

At the PCC in June, it was agreed that we would establish a 'Book Club' to meet to discuss books with religious/ spiritual values. The inaugural meeting will be on Wednesday 26th September at 10.30 am. The initial venue will be 51 Demesne Furze; if there is sufficient interest we will meet on a monthly basis and the venue will vary according to who volunteers to host it.

The first book to be discussed will be 'The Shack' by William P. Young. Eve Vause based a sermon on it a few months ago and this led several of us to express interest in it. It is proposed that the discussion will last about one and a half hours. Coffee (or tea, if requested) will be served.

If you would like to join us, please contact me on 01865 741116 / 07852 338852, so that I know how many to cater for. If the date is not convenient for you but you are interested in coming to subsequent meetings, please let me know.

Catherine Hodgkinson
